Hancock's pen was mightier than Barnum's mules.

The address of our friend Clinton Babbitt will be Belmont as usual.

What little remains of the Democratic party will be laid away next Tuesday.

Mr. English has decided that he will retire with the whole Democratic party.

The highlight of the Democratic managers is splendid. They never had any foresight.

Rock county will give the Republican ticket about 3,000 majority. It will do this as a peace offering.

The Democrats always fall through when they put themselves on a platform. The tariff plank killed them.

The Democrats are now worried, over the question whether they will get a decent burial after the campaign.

A poor commentary on Democratic principles: The better the party is known, the fewer votes it will get.

If you want to confer a priceless favor on the Democrats just let their party alone and say nothing about its record.

The Republicans can hardly hope for any more letters from Hancock before the election. The last one finished him.

Mud-machines have proved a failure and forged letters were too easily detected. What will the Democrats try next?

Inasmuch as Mr. Landers is the most unpopular man, and Mr. Billy English the meanest man in Indiana, they should take to lecturing.

There are two things the Democrats are earnestly praying for, votes and harmony. The prayers of the wicked never did amount to much.

One can't blame the Democrats for feeling bad. The appointed day is next Tuesday, and they don't forget it. They are like a man waiting a week for the gallows.

Winfield Scott Hancock, seems to be no longer the "superb, gallant, brave, and good" soldier he was in June. The best thing the Democrats can now say of him is that he weighs 250.

While the Democrats are racking their brain to invent some slander against the Republican candidate, the Republican party is quietly making all the arrangements to make the election of Garfield a certainty.

The Atlanta Constitution speaks of Wisconsin being likely to go for Hancock. Probably that paper has received a private circular from Chairman Parkinson. Wisconsin will go for Hancock, but it will be "over the left," by about 20,000 majority.

For sale, cheap: A lot of mud-machines, the patent on the "329," a few mules, a forged letter, the free trade plank in the Democratic platform, a quantity of steel rails, a superb soldier, which includes the stock in trade of the Democratic party. Apply at Barnum's headquarters.

There is every indication that Senator Richardson will sweep the county by an overwhelming majority. There is practically no opposition to him. The feeble faint the Democrats have made will answer no purpose. For four years Senator Richardson has represented this county well in the Senate, and the vote next week will show that he will be handsomely endorsed. Let the Republican see to it that old Rock will roll up an old-time majority for Richardson and the rest of the ticket.

It was a sad experience. The ciphers were transcribed. The mules kicked. The ties were not of good material. The steel rails broke. The tariff plank went to pieces. The 329 was a bad game. The forged letters were found out. Landers was too unpopular. Shylock English was too mean for anything. Indiana played a trick on the Democratic party. Ohio went Republican pell-mell. The Democrats lost confidence. What is worse, they lost a good deal of money. The address of the superb soldier will continue to be Governor's Island.

Feebleness and discouragement seem to have overtaken the Democrats of the Second Assembly district. They have not yet picked up a candidate for the Assembly, notwithstanding there are only five more working days before the election. There is a carelessness about this matter because the Democrats have no hope of electing their candidate, and none of their leading men who are fit for the office care to be nominated in the face of defeat. Mr. Lawrence will be re-elected by a big majority. He served well last winter, and for this reason he will not only receive the unanimous support of the Republicans, but he will be practically endorsed by many Democrats.

THE CONGRESSIONAL QUESTION.

The most woeful forlorn hope is the Democratic party of the First congressional district. It hasn't got energy or life, or strength enough to reach the dignity of a party. It is nowhere. It is lonesome and abandoned. It amounts to nothing because it has no leaders in the district, and it is forgotten because it has no principles. It hasn't a speaker who can administer a word of comfort in its hours of loneliness and hopelessness, and it hasn't a paper with life enough to publish an obituary notice when it dies.

Mr. Clinton Babbitt is the candidate of the forlorn hope. That is, the convention nominated him, and he did not object, though it seems he doesn't want it understood that he is really running for Congress. He likes Mr. Williams, and two years ago he supported him, and even made a speech for him. Mr. Williams has not changed since then, and the Democrats have not changed either, and what Mr. Babbitt is going to do about it, is a question. He advised the Democrats to scratch the rat-and-tan Democratic ticket, and to vote for an honest man—Mr. Williams. The Democrats are still rat-and-tan, and Mr. Williams is honest still. Mr. Williams will be returned to Congress by common consent of the district. His majority will be greater than ever before. In 1876, when he ran against Mr. Winslow, of Racine, he received 5,728 majority out of a vote of 30,884. In 1878, when our friend C. W. Stewart ran Charles H. Parker for Congress, Mr. Williams received 4,680 majority out of a total vote of 24,593. The vote in the district will likely be greater than it was four years ago, and indications point to the fact that his majority will be the largest ever received in this district.

WHY A REPUBLICAN PRESIDENT SHOULD BE ELECTED.

James A. Garfield should be elected in this campaign because he is the exponent of Republican principles. The Republican party is the grandest political organization the world ever saw. It has done more great and glorious things than were ever done by any party in any country or in any age. It was born when a party of freedom, of justice, of progress, and of intelligence was needed in this country. The Republican party should win in this all-important contest—

Because it has ever remained true to the constitution.

Because it controlled the government when treason went in arms in the South. Because it organized armies and equipped fleets and created a mighty system of finance, and conquered the most gigantic civil war ever known in history.

Because it gave freedom to 4,000,000 slaves.

Because it gave the ballot to those who were once chattels.

Because it never sympathized with secession or assassination.

Because it opposed from its birth, the extension of that demoralizing and barbarous system of human slavery.

Because it never impaired the credit of the Union.

Because it has been faithful to its promises, and never repudiated the debts it contracted.

Because it has made the credit of the United States absolutely good, and sounder than was ever before known in American history.

Because it never attempted to deceive the creditors of the government.

Because it never fired upon the American flag.

Because it never massacred Union soldiers.

Because no Republican was ever a member of the Ku-klux klan, rifle clubs, or White Liners.

Because it never went into forgery and perjury, and ballot stuffing to carry an election.

Because it believes in a free ballot, a full vote, and a fair count.

Because it believes in a tariff which will keep our shops, mills, factories, and foundries in running order, and give employment to American workmen at fair wages.

Because it is the party of intelligence, of progress, of justice, and of peace.

Because it does not believe in sectionalism.

Because it does not believe in Wade Hampton, Ben. Hill, and other Confederate brigadiers, controlling the government, and making the men who saved it from dissolution take back seats.

Because it has managed the affairs of the government more economically and wisely than any other party that ever lived.

Because the sole credit of furnishing the United States with the best and the safest system of paper currency ever known in history belongs to the Republican party.

Because it is the only party which gives the people any assurance that it will administer the affairs of the government honestly, economically and righteously.

These are some of the reasons why General Garfield should be elected, and these are the reasons why the Republican party will sweep every Northern State next week.

Colonel Ingersoll, in his great Cooper Institute speech Saturday night, said:

"I never was more profoundly happy than on the night of that 12th day of October when I found that between an honest and a kindly man and his maligners, two great States had thrown their shining shields. [Great applause.] When Ohio said, 'Garfield is my greatest son, and there never has been raised in the cabins of Ohio a grander man'—tremendous applause and cheers;—and when Indiana [loud cheers]—and when Indiana held up their hands and said, 'Allow me to endorse that verdict,' I was profoundly happy, because that said to me, 'Garfield will carry every Northern State' that said to me, 'The Solid South will be confronted by a great and splendid North.' [Cheers.]

When Garfield's name was first mentioned there was tremendous cheering in the audience, again and again renewed, the men standing up, waving their hats and the ladies their handkerchiefs.

INDIANA.

The Democratic Tactics—Republican Stump Speakers—15,000 Majority.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 25.—General Garfield stated to-day to one of his callers at Mentor, a prominent gentleman of Indianapolis, that he had just received information that the Democratic managers of Indiana proposed during the few days of the campaign remaining to spend more money in buying votes than they had ever done before, realizing that it was absolutely necessary for them to carry Indiana if they expected to elect Hancock. The Indiana man replied that the hunt was a still one at present on the part of the Democrats, while the Republicans were again making speeches all over the state. If money and repeaters were again used, the Republicans would take more prompt and effective measures than before to check the evil. He thought Indiana would this time give the Republicans 15,000 majority. General Garfield highly praised Senator Dorsey's part in the Indiana fight of October, as well as the work of others, and said he regarded Dorsey as his lieutenant.

DISSATISFACTION.

Another Storm Brewing in the Democratic Camp in New York City.

New York, Oct. 25.—No feature in city politics stood out to-day in such bold prominence as the dissatisfaction of a large section of the Democracy with the Union ticket. This was the most notable among the Germans, and a movement is already on foot for the nomination of independent candidates, so as to frame a third ticket. The absence of Mr. Otten-dorfer is keenly felt in this crisis, and it is stated that if he were only in the city now a ticket would be presented which would command a large support. He is on his way from Europe on the steamer Mosel which is not expected before Thursday or Friday, too late to render the needed service. Meanwhile, the leaders of the several independent German organizations have not been idle, and great effort is being made to-day to have a call issued for a general conference, which should be held not later than Wednesday.

JOINT DISCUSSION.

The Political Pot on the Boil in Dane County.

MADISON, Oct. 25.—The joint discussion between Gov. Washburn and Col. William F. Vilas to-morrow (Tuesday) night on the political issues of the day, promises to be very largely attended. Delegates from all parts of the country are coming. The Democrats in this section are exceedingly despondent of the election of Hancock, and many of the more prominent and honest ones do not hesitate to make their belief public. They are working exceedingly hard, however, to carry their own ticket and Congressmen, though the Republicans are jubilant and aggressive and hope to carry the county with a boom. The election of Mr. Caswell as member of Congress in this (the second) district is assured by over 1,000 majority if the Republicans will turn and cast their votes.

GARFIELD.

Formal Statement From General Garfield Relating to the Morey Letter.

New York, Oct. 25.—Mr. Jewell to-day received the following letter from General Garfield:

MEXICO, O. Oct. 23, 1880.—The Hon. Marshall Jewell, Chairman, Republican National Committee, 241 Fifth avenue, New York.—Dear Sir: In my dispatches of yesterday and this evening (which are also sent you by mail), I have denounced the Morey letter as a base forgery. Its stupid and brutal sentiments I never expressed nor entertained. The lithographic copy shows a very poor attempt to imitate my penmanship and signature. Any one who is familiar with my handwriting will instantly see that the letter is spurious. Very truly yours,

J. A. GARFIELD.

New York, Oct. 25.—Mr. Daggett read two lithograph letters from Gen. Garfield at the Sherman meeting to-night, declaring the letter on the Chinese labor question recently published to be a forgery.

REWARD.

$5000 Reward Offered for the Arrest and Conviction of the Author of the Forged Chinese Letter.

New York, Oct. 25.—The Tribune furnishes the following: "Congressman Chittenden, of Brooklyn, will furnish $5,000 reward for evidence furnished at any time during the months of October or November leading to the arrest and conviction of the man who forged the handwriting and signature of Gen. J. A. Garfield in the so-called Chinese letter."

THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY.

President Hayes and Party in New Mexico, Enroute Home.

SANTA FE, Oct. 25.—The New Mexican's Shakespeare special states that President Hayes and party arrived at Shakespeare this morning, and left immediately for Fort Cummings, where they will arrive to-night. Thence they will be brought to San Marcial, the present terminus of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway, by the first relays, a strong military escort, ambulances, and other conveniences being furnished by General Hatch, who will himself meet the party at the terminus of the track. The route from Fort Cummings to San Marcial will be strongly picketed to provide against danger from Apaches. The party will arrive at Santa Fe on the night of the 27th, leaving on the 28th direct for the East.

WISCONSIN UNIVERSITY.

MADISON, Oct. 25.—The regents have appointed the following Board of Visitors to the University for the college year ending June 21, 1881: T. W. Haight, Waukesha; William Roche, Watertown; J. B. Treat, Monroe; J. H. Mead, Sheboygan; Charles Vroman, Green Bay; H. S. Buer, River Falls; B. W. Johnson, Wausau; Charles Burn, La Crosse; G. H. Burn, La Crosse; G. H. Noyes, Milwaukee; W. D. Parker, River Falls. Of this number four, Messrs. Vroman, James, Burn, and Noyes, are alumni of the institution.

SEVEN WIVES.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 25.—A sensation has been created here by the discovery that Mary Ann Connor, who died six weeks after marriage, and just after making her will, leaving all her property, about $5,000, to her husband, Michael Connor, was the seventh wife of the man, his sixth wife having died within a few months of his marriage to the woman who expired last week. It is alleged that he treated his wife with brutality, and that immediately after death her face turned light blue, and her body became swollen.

SECOND COUNT.

St. Louis, Oct. 23.—Prof. C. M. Woodward, of Washington University, received his commission as Supervisor of Census to-day, and will at once organize a force to make another enumeration of the population of the city.

BURNED.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 25.—The Sentinel's August special says a fire this morning destroyed most of the business part of that village. Loss $20,000. Supposed to be the work of incendiaries.

ROCK.

—Corn husking and plowing are the chief occupations of the farmers. —The Afton hotel is now ready to receive the patronage of the traveling public.

Heitman & Johnson shipped two car loads of hogs last Thursday.

—C. E. & M. C. Uehling, are doing a lively business in the flour and feed line at the Afton mills.

—Mr. Williams, our efficient supervisor and his estimable wife, have just returned from an extended trip to the Eastern States.

—Palmer & Kilmer are rushing things with their vibrator thrasher.

—The Janesville and Afton branch of the C. & N. W. R. R., does a good business in the passenger and freight line.

—The Madison division of the C. & N. W. R. R. is the only direct route to St. Paul and Minneapolis without change of cars. From five to eight coaches are drawn by each passenger train.

—Hundreds of German emigrants pass through Afton every week for the great Northwest.

JOHNSTOWN CENTER.

—Willie, the youngest son of ex-Sheriff Pember, of this place, has been very sick, but is now much better.

—The opening party at the Johnson house, last Friday evening, passed off very quietly and pleasantly, the participants receiving every attention that the genial host could bestow.

—Rev. Wallace, the owner of the "Old Hotel," at this place, is giving it a new coat of paint, a new roof, and otherwise repairing it. It presents a decidedly improved appearance.

—Prof. Greesbeck's first term of school in Wisconsin closed on Friday, the 22nd inst. He was the recipient of a handsome gold pen and case from the pupils, which was a great surprise to him, and was also a great gratification, as showing the kindly feeling of the pupils toward him. The next term commences about the 15th of November.

—Mr. M. McGrath visited the county house, on Sunday, to talk with the inmates, and distribute books or papers among them. He comes about once a month, and the inmates receive him gladly. Every attention is shown him by Mr. Pickett, the keeper of the institution.

—Husking has begun in good earnest, and there is quite a demand for help, at good wages.

—Mr. Randall's sheep shed was blown down in the last terrific gale. A number of other smaller buildings were partially unroofed.

—The result in Indiana has put quite a damper on the spirits of the faithful, and none of them now ever thought they would carry it. Republicans are quite confident, and are bound to get out the full vote if possible.

Epitaph on Roger Bacon.

One day whilst trying his corns to grow off, His razor slipped and cut his toe off. The wound soon grew to mortifying. That was the cause of Roger dying. If he had Electric Oil, used and taken, He might quite easily have saved his Bacon. For sale by A. J. Roberts, and Croft & Shorer.

How a Leadville Lady "Put Her Foot In It."

Leadville Chronicle: The other day the writer and one of the best known medical practitioners of Leadville were talking over old shenanigans in business, when the man of pills and plasters said: "I think, to tell the truth, I had the most singular experience of my whole professional career the other day."

"What was it, doctor?"

"Well, I'll tell you, leaving out all names, for I expect the party will be recognized anywhere. It was just this: 'The middle part of last week one of the best young ladies of Leadville—she's sweet as a peach, too—came to my office in the evening, told me in a great deal of embarrassment that she wanted me to help her out of some trouble. Well, from her manner my worst suspicions were aroused, and I began to question her closely. And what the deuce do you think? Well, the confounded little fool had had the name of the young fellow whom she used to be engaged to tattooed on the cuff of her leg. Now, she's just about to get married to quite a different party, and had sense enough to think the marking would be likely to kick up a row in the family. She was awfully distressed and ready to submit to almost anything, even a surgical operation, to wipe out the damned spot.'"

"I was puzzled at first, but after studying over it for a little while I happened to remember that I had read somewhere in some old scientific magazine that tattooing may be removed by going over the design with a needle dipped in milk. It was a forlorn hope, but I thought I would try it, and taking her little foot—delicate position, wasn't it, for a married man?—I carefully went over the letters. It must have hurt, but she never whimpered, and when it was all over I told her to go home and come again in a couple of days."

"Well, sir, when she came I had the satisfaction of knowing that the letters had faded into an indistinguishable blue line. The operation is a perfect success, and she is the happiest girl in Leadville. I got $50 for the job. Let's go and have a smoke."

Mrs. E. H. Perkins, Creek Centre, Warren Co., N. Y., writes: She has been troubled with Asthma for four years, and had to sit up night after night with it. She has taken two bottles of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and is perfectly cured. She strongly recommends it, and wishes to act as agent among her neighbors. Sold by A. J. Roberts, and Croft & Shorer.
